

Activity 1: Labeling the Parts of a Flowering Plant

Curricular Unit Teacher Materials

Instructions: Label the parts of the model plant and write a function for each part.

Teacher's Note: If a live sample of this plant is available, have students observe each of the structures on the live plant. Wild mustard plants can often be found as a common weed in parking lots or fields.

